

DECEMBER 20–26

The readings for this week, and for the two following weeks, are all taken from the Psalms assigned to be read in the Daily Office Lectionary for Evening Prayer (I used the Psalms assigned for Monday through Friday). You will need to look them up in the Bible or The Book of Common Prayer.

As you read through them, reflect upon them in light of what we discussed about the Psalms. What is the main idea(s) of the Psalm? Could you pray this Psalm, or parts of it? Have you ever felt the way the psalmist claims to be feeling? What does it teach you about prayer?

Psalm 61

Date: _____

Psalm 66

Date: _____

Psalm 72

Date: _____

Psalm 45

Date: _____

Psalm 93

Date: _____

DECEMBER 27 – JANUARY 2

(See last week's introduction).

Psalm 2

Date: _____

Psalm 18:1–20

Date: _____

Psalm 20

Date: _____

Psalm 46

Date: _____

Psalm 103

Date: _____

JANUARY 3 – 9

(See the introduction from two weeks ago).

Psalm 85

Date: _____

Psalm 2

Date: _____

Psalm 46

Date: _____

Psalm 103

Date: _____

Psalm 117

Date: _____